- What support we need from one another and others...

- That we are always kind to each other and we value unconditional love and honesty at all times.
- That we have Jos-free time to connect as a couple - this is usually once or twice a month and we enjoy going to the theatre, walking, seeing friends.
- Grandma, Auntie Linzi and Lisa are our regular babysitting 'team'.
- We have weekly get togethers with our friends and neighbours, usually in their back garden!
- That I work with like-minded people who value social justice.
- That we have meals around our kitchen table to talk, laugh and share our day every day.
- We financially and emotionally support anyone in our family who may need it.
- We have equity as a couple - sharing the workload and childcare
- We share and nurture our time with Jos.
- Respect our need to spend time apart with friends.

What is important to us as a family...

To spend lots of time with our wonderfully rich and diverse extended family (including Patrick, Rosa, Joe, Dave, Lisa and Pete, Grandma, Auntie Linzi, Jos' Cousins/our Nephew and Nieces).

We play an active part in our neighbourhood (and our lasting friendships with neighbours Martin and Kate, Emma and Gab, Tilly, Poppy and Tom, Joel, Jane, Syd and Pearl) and in our local community.

To use our consumer power ethically and thoughtfully.

That we are kind to each other and respectful of each other.

That we have family time just for the three of us - Mummy, Daddy and Jos (going to the Park, the Museum, train station, go to Buxton on the train, seeing friends).

That we spend time with our Grandchildren, Dave, Lisa and Pete, Jos' Grandma and Auntie Linzi at least once a week (having a family meal, playing at the woods, going to the farm, going swimming).

We have regular holidays, at least twice a year.
